SUMMER 2013

JUNIPER GREEN PARISH CHURCH

From the Minister's Desk

Dear Friends,

Here's a story from Beyond the Good Samaritan by Ann Morisy. It is all about what we do and why we do it.

I used to call in at a second-hand shop run by the church in a former mining community, the shop was like a permanent jumble sale, with second-hand clothes and bric-a-brac and mugs of tea and coffee for anyone who wanted them. The most significance place in the shop was around the open fire, where people would sit and chat and put the world to rights.

As part of a review of the shop's 'mission', people were asked to say what was the most important thing to them about the shop. Almost without exception they said it was being able to sit around the fire chatting, this led to the next question: why was the fire so important? Some said it brought back happy memories of their family sitting around the fire enjoying the warmth and the conversation. They were asked why that didn't happen now and the response came back that there was no one to sit around with at home any more. Why was this? Because people had left, leaving only the 'old timers' in the town.

The questions were posed 'Who lights the fire each morning?' and 'who stokes the fire?' It was the men who did this and they were the ones who would stand in front of the fire to warm themselves. Did all the men do this? No, only the regulars; it would be presumptuous of a newcomer to poke the fire and put more coal on. Why was it the men who took responsibility for the fire? Because that's all they're good for, came the half-mocking response from the women in the group. Why is it that this is all that the men do? From here the discussion came alive, it was no longer a quaint insight into the mores of a mining community. The discussion took account of the pit closures and the sense of uselessness which the men felt. How everything about the town had gone downhill. How anyone with anything about them had moved, and those who were left were either old or 'good-for-nothings'. And no, the shop which the church ran didn't help very much either: what sort of man wants to fold second-hand clothes and arrange bric-a-brac?

The responses to those questions changed the 'mission' of the shop. The church took over a warehouse and set up a community café. This new stage in the project's life would give plenty of jobs that both men and women felt able to do. There were vans to drive for the house clearance business. There was furniture restoration. Wardrobes and beds to deliver to needy families close by, as well as at the other end of the county. A skilled eye to develop in order to know what to send to auction and what to put on the bric-a-brac counter. The Church saw that the emphasis on recycling was not limited to material goods; it was people who were being salvaged as well.

In this little story, the shop's focus changed: it had started life as a place where people came to buy things, but it had changed subtly into a place where people met to chat and put the world to rights. When people recognised that the community had changed and that the shop's purpose had changed, they changed the way they did things.

Like it or not, life has changed incredibly. My 3-year old grandson has already learned how to work computer technology, the first generation growing up with that technology as a fact of life. 50 years ago, communication was by a telephone attached to the wall and connected by the operator. People got their information about the world through the newspapers and on the radio; grainy television pictures were just beginning, but we only learned about things that had happened on the day after. Now, everyone has a phone in his pocket and news in on television or on the tablet twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, and so often we watch it as it happens!

Community has changed because lifestyle has changed. 50 years ago, nothing much happened on a Sunday; this Sunday, families will do swimming lessons, ski-ing lessons, shopping, football and rugby coaching. Lots of people go to work early and finish late.

How does the church communicate the good news of Jesus in this kind of world? How does the Church create a space for people to chew the fat and set the world to rights? How does the Church help people to find faith in Jesus and then help that faith to grow? How does the Church give people the space to worship God in a busy, cluttered world? Answers on a postcard...

Yours sincerely,

James S. Dewar.

TREASURER'S REPORT

The General Treasurer of the Church of Scotland wrote to us earlier this year to thank us for our Ministries and Mission contribution for this year which amounts to £63,760. He also wished to inform us how this contribution would be spent which I now detail below.

Ministries (86%): £54,834 of our total contribution will go towards the costs of providing over 1,000 ministers and other parish workers in communities throughout Scotland and in the Presbytery of England. This contribution also assists with the costs of recruitment and training. The 2013 cost of a parish minister at the top of the stipend scale is £39,895 (stipend plus employer's national insurance and pension contributions). As our contribution to Ministries is above this figure, our church is meeting the full cost of our ministry and supporting other congregations.

Mission (14%): £8,926 of our total contribution will be used to support the Church's work in: resourcing congregations for Christian education and outreach; providing social care services in Christ's name to further the caring work of the Church to people in need; accompanying partners around the world on our shared Christian journey; contributing the Church's opinion in public debate and on issues affecting Scotland and the World; providing central day-to-day service work in administrative, financial and legal matters; and in planning the General Assembly and in ensuring the Moderator represents the Church.

As you will see, the contribution our church makes ensures a very diverse ministry is maintained and that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is shared in many ways and in many places.

National Stewardship Campaign: As approved by last year's General Assembly, the aspect of Stewardship should be on our agenda every year and managed in the three-year cycle of Money, Talents and Time. Last year our campaign 'Giving is Gracious' was most successful, centred on both money and talents. We hope our campaign this year, 'Time for Giving', will be just as positive – with your help – and therefore we have decided to make use of the formula that seemed to work so well last year.

In September we have again arranged three times when I we hope we will meet together to look at ways that we can give more of our time to the church and to each other. This year it will not be about money but a time to get to know each other better, to find out what people can do to help others and to enjoy being together as a church family. I will summarise what our campaign will be about and I only ask that you join with us in at least some part of it.

- 1) On Saturday 21st September we will host an afternoon tea for those in our congregation and community who are elderly, infirm, who may be living alone and don't get out much, or who would like to meet with others they perhaps have not seen for some time. Entertainment has been arranged and I am sure it will be a most enjoyable event.
- 2) On Saturday 28th September we will hold a Time for Giving Day. In the morning please come along to the church hall where those who are able may choose to give just a little bit more of their time to the church and others will give of their time to help other members by volunteering their time with the skills that they have. It could be reading, painting, gardening, legal matters, financial help, etc.
- 3) On the evening of 28th September, we will be organising an evening meal provided by Irene Shepherd followed by some entertainment. Tickets will be available at a cost of £12 in early August but put this date in your diary now.

Throughout my term as your Church Treasurer I have always been encouraged by the response from you whenever there has been a need for raising funds and I am pleased to say that we are presently in a reasonable financial position. However, we must not be complacent as there is much work needed to our buildings to bring them up to modern day standards. For this reason, for meeting our quite substantial Ministries and Mission contribution and our own Mission commitments, your annual review of your giving to the church is appreciated.

Finally, from Hebrews, Chapter 13 verse 16: "And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased."

R Douglas Buchanan
Treasurer

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

The third Men's Fellowship meeting for 2012/13 met on Sunday 24 February 2013. The speaker, after the breakfast, was Gordon McFadzean with the topic "Worship – True or False". Gordon's talk highlighted different worship forms of praise using CD's and his experiences of praise music, namely Free Church of Scotland, Gregorian Chant, Russian Church Music, Traditional Maronite Chant (Syrian Christian Music), and Musica Sancta Jerusalem (Monastery of the Resurrection in Abu Gosh at Emmaus). His journey highlighted that he felt a part of the different worship experiences, although the language and form of worship was different from say the Kirk, and these experiences were an encouragement and a blessing in his faith journey.

His talk prompted thoughts of other worship music like Taize during the discussion. Further examples of Christian music from other traditions can be easily found on the Web.

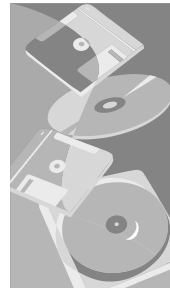

A Men's Dinner took place in the new Clubhouse of Baberton Golf Club on 11 April 2013. The after-dinner speaker was David Dewhurst, Director of Finance of EMMS International (formerly Edinburgh Medical Missionary Society), on the topic "Work of EMMS International", an Edinburgh based Christian organization going back to 1841. David explained the historical background to "EMMS" with emphasis on medical aid to foreign countries, currently India, Malawi, and Nepal. "EMMS" gives financial support on a project basis in the form of healthcare partnerships in poorest parts of the world to assist in transforming lives by improving life chances and by sharing Christian faith in works and actions. Health challenges mentioned by David included hiv/aids, malnutrition, malaria, and poverty. Following David's talk a period of discussion brought out the role of "EMMS" including a recent visit by David to a hospital in northern India. At the end of the evening, all present had learned about the role of "EMMS" and its many challenges.

The final Breakfast Meeting of the 2012/13 Session is planned for 9 June 2013. The speaker will be John Christy and his topic "My Faith Journey".

Anyone wishing more details about the Fellowship Meetings please speak to Ian Aitken or Michael Merriman.

CHURCH MUSIC LIBRARY

The Music Library continues to be available with a variety of over 50 CDs. It contains a selection of Christian CDs from artists and bands from all over the world - ranging from Hillsong United from Australia to Vineyard from South Africa - offering a great combination of traditional and contemporary praise and worship songs. CD's of Morning Services are also available.

FRESH START

Thank you for your continuing support for the homeless through Fresh Start. There will be no monthly collections in July and August, but we will start again on September 1st with Cleaning things/Light bulbs. As always, the box is in the Church Vestibule for donations at any time. Please note that I will no longer be collecting clothing.

Thanks again.

Marilyn Godon.

LADIES BADMINTON

We finished our season at the end of May and look forward to a warm summer break, if that's possible! We averaged between 10 and 12 players most Wednesday mornings but would always welcome a few more playing members.

We resume playing again in September and look forward to seeing everyone ready and fit for the new season. In the meantime, we wish you all a happy summer holiday.

LEPROSY MISSION

The money collected at the Guild of Friendship Meeting and the cash in the phials which are available for other members of the Church on the display desk at the front door of the Church is now sent once a month which reduces work and postage for everyone. I am delighted to say that from January to the end of April £89.13 has been sent to the Leprosy Mission – a great sum of money considering most of this total is made up of one and two pence pieces. Once again I thank you all for your support. Here is an extract from the last letter received from the Leprosy Mission Scotland “Your continued support will help us to keep supporting leprosy affected people and funding programmes to bring justice to people affected by leprosy, to break down stigma, provide treatment, rehabilitation, education and training opportunities which help people turn their lives around”.

The Guild of Friendship starts again in September and I will continue to collect the phials regularly from the front of the Church. I hope you all have a good Summer and that a change of weather will put a smile on our faces.

Sheena Blair.

Annual Church Golf Outing

The 2013 Alistair McBean Golf Competition will be held at Baberton Golf Course on Friday 16th August 2013. The presentation of prizes, followed by a meal, will take place that evening in the new club house, 7 for 7.30 pm. The competition will be a Stableford and is open to golfing church members with the meal being open to all church members. The approximate cost of the meal including wine will be £20 and the entry fee for the golf approximately £5 for Baberton Golf Club members and £10 for non-club members. The total number for the meal is limited to 36 so to avoid disappointment please reserve your place early.

The amazing power of the Lord

This story is an incredible but true one. In April, a house in the Baberton area was broken into and burgled one Saturday night when the owners mistakenly left a downstairs window open when painting. Suffice to say a small amount of high value goods was taken and packed into a rucksack the man of the house uses for work. The amazing thing is that although the thief emptied the rucksack before he used it, he failed to remove a Bible the owner kept in it. He and his wife joked that maybe the thief would feel contrition when he came across it.

Well he did. Having reported the break in on Sunday first thing and having had the police at their home for much of the morning, imagine the owners' surprise when their doorbell was rung at 6.15pm on the Sunday night by the thief who had come to confess all and hand himself in to the police. He gave back all the items that he had stolen except for the Bible which, if the owner didn't mind, he wanted to keep.

The man was in quite a distressed state, said he had been drinking the previous night, had broken into their house and stolen goods but had woken up in the afternoon of the following day remembering what he had done and feeling full of guilt. He had written a personal letter of apology which he handed to the owners. They invited him in and gave him a coffee and the lady of the house started to cook him a meal after she had 'phoned for the police. The police then arrived, stormed the house but were amazed to find the man sitting having a cup of coffee with the owner while his wife was cooking a meal for the distressed man.

It turned out there was a warrant out for his arrest already. He was quite tearful and distressed with himself and 'wanted' to go to jail. But he was very pleasant and the owners actually felt quite sorry for him. He had dressed himself as smartly as he could before he came back to the house including putting on a tie. The police were incredulous and said they hadn't come across a situation like this in all their years combined service. It seems most unusual. Was the power of the Lord at work through the Bible? The owners think it was and hope God's word will continue to help the man who now has the Bible as his own.

CHILDREN'S HOLIDAY CLUB

I have a question in my mind – will we run a children's Holiday Club this summer? The answer is (not blowing in the wind!) all centred on whether we have the people to make up a team. I reckon that we need at least 12 people to work with the children, in addition to those doing the behind-the-scenes work. If you would like to help and have (or have not done it before), speak to me as soon as possible. You would need to be available during the mornings of the week August 5th-9th and would need to be willing to go through the Disclosure process if you're over 18.

FIND US ON FACEBOOK

The Church has a Facebook page; some of you will know instantly what that means; some won't have a clue. It is very basic and is a work in progress, but it is meant as another way of communicating with people. Do have a look and tell Mr Dewar how it can be done better.

CHURCH GRASS

Help is required to cut the church grass.

Volunteers who would be happy to operate quite a heavy petrol mower and also an electric strimmer are asked to contact Douglas Buchanan.

HALLS CLEANING

This continues in a regular routine, with all the teams working conscientiously to keep our halls tidy and clean for church groups and others who use our facilities.

Some teams are down to three members, and so more volunteers are needed to bring all the teams up to strength. Please get in touch if you can help. All that is required is about two to three hours once every six weeks.

Green Strollers

The season got off to a good start with the Strollers continuing their Fife Coastal Path walk from Aberdour to Burntisland. The weather was mostly kind to us and the company, as always was good.

Our next walk was more local, from Balerno, taking in the reservoirs. Again, weather was good and the walking was fun, with good company. Limekilns is next on the agenda.

Check the church notice board for future walks and dates.

We are always on the look-out for new members, so if you are interested, please see either Beth or Jeanette, or just come along on one of the walks.

Thank you to all leaders and 'strollers'. We look forward to the summer and lots of fun walking.

Jeanette and Beth

GUILD OF FRIENDSHIP

We have now come to the end of our year, completing our programme with a successful lunch before our AGM on 2nd May. We have had a varied series of meetings, covering mission work, charities, history, music, craft, nature and poetry. Two which stand out were an afternoon of reminiscence by a speaker from the Living Memory Association, and an excellent concert by the Springwell Golden Voices. We also heard about one of the Church of Scotland Guild projects, the Julius Project, which sets out to give practical help and support to homeless people.

We have been able to donate to a range of charities and projects, as well as to our own church, and we collected school materials and clothing to give to Drummond High School to send to its twin schools in Kenya.

Our membership is 45, with attendance at meetings usually about 30. Membership is open to men and women, and we look forward to welcoming new and existing members to our first autumn meeting on 5 September 2013.

Elaine Wilson, Secretary

CHOIR NOTES

Congratulations to Christopher Grieve whose cello playing at a recent concert in Greyfriars Kirk drew much praise. Christopher was playing a cello solo in the Overture to Poet and Peasant by Franz von Suppé. However, we do not need Malcom Brown to go to a concert to hear Chris as we enjoy his musical gifts each Sunday morning! We also enjoy Mrs Muriel McNair's violin playing. The two of them certainly enhance our musical offerings week by week. Are there any more instrumentalists out there who might join us?

Choir members come along faithfully Sunday by Sunday to practise before the service and then sing during it. We would welcome any new singers who would like to come along.

PALM

PALM is a new social group which is being launched at the end of August for people with advanced memory loss and their carers.

The PALM group aims:

- To provide a space for people with memory loss and their carers to come together to meet others in a similar situation for support and social contact.
- To use activities such as music, movement, reminiscence and craft to enhance the wellbeing of the person with advanced memory loss.
- To provide an opportunity for informal support and information for carers.

The group will be held in the St Joseph's Centre, Balerno on the last Tuesday of the month between 2.30pm and 4pm (Starting at the end of August 2013).

If you would be interested in attending this new group and would like more information please contact Kay Latimer.

Kay Latimer

E-mail: kaylatimer@btopenworld.com

We are also looking for volunteers to help in the running of the group. You do not require any previous experience and any time you can give will be greatly appreciated. Please Contact Kay if you would like more information on volunteering.

SAFEGUARDING

By October 2015 everyone working with children or vulnerable groups must be a member of the PVG (Protection of Vulnerable Groups) scheme. At Juniper Green we follow guidelines set out by the Church of Scotland Safeguarding Service.

The first stage of retrospective checking will be completed by the end of October this year. This has involved people who worked with children before enhanced disclosure was implemented. Thank you to all who have made this task pleasant to achieve.

After this date it will be necessary for volunteers who have enhanced disclosure to become PVG scheme members.

All new volunteers must become PVG scheme members before they can work with groups in our congregation.

Please get in touch if you have any questions.

Thank You

Jim and Patricia Walker would like to thank our Church friends for their get well wishes and cards for Jim during his recent illness and also their cards of congratulations on us reaching our Golden Wedding Anniversary. These concerns and good wishes were very much appreciated.

Sheena and Bill Blair would like to thank everyone for the cards, 'phone calls, visits and messages sent to them after Bill's hip operation. Knowing that so many people were praying and thinking about us at such an anxious time was a great comfort and made us realise what a wonderful church family we have in Juniper Green. We really do appreciate it.

We would also like to thank you for the concern and attention given to Uncle George on the loss of his wife, Peggy. George is now in Corstorphine Hospital awaiting a place in a Nursing Home. Your continued thoughts and prayers will be very much appreciated.
